Up Close and Personal with Philadelphia Police Commissioner Ramsey

The perfect gift for the crime-solver in the family....the winner can choose either a two hour ride-along or a lunch with the Commissioner.

A once in a lifetime experience for this lucky winner and a guest!

- Ride-a-Long with the Commissioner will be conducted on a weekday (no weekends and preferably in the afternoon) with no more than two (02) passengers included in the Ride-a-Long.

Depending on the winner's location, the Commissioner can meet him/her at his place of business or the winner can meet the Commissioner at the Police Department. Ride-a-Long policy mandates that the passenger (s) sign a waiver of liability and wear a vest - both of which will be provided on the date of the event.

The winner is free to choose the district/area to be covered during the Ride-a-Long.

OR

- Lunch with the Commissioner: Lunch at @12:30 during the week. Philadelphia location/venue determined by the auction winner. Center City is preferable, but not mandatory - the Commissioner will meet the auction winner at the restaurant. Due to time constraints, the size of the lunch party should be reasonable - 2 or 3 attendees.

In either case, the Police Commissioner will be accompanied by his driver, Police Officer Christopher Frazier.

Winner must contact Denise Neary, nearys51@comcast.net, to arrange mutually convenient date.
